

MOSAIC Introduction Course to Begin July 13th

Are you new to Mt. Olive and interested in learning more about what we believe?

Have you been around for a while and are looking for a review of basic Christian teachings in an informal setting?

Either way, MOSAIC is for you!

On Sunday, July 13th, Pastor Jeff Alexander will begin another session of MOSAIC, which stands for “Mount Olive’s Spiritual Aptitude Introduction Course”. This four-part course is designed to provide an overview of foundational Christian doctrines (the Triune God, the Bible, Law & Gospel, and the Sacraments) and integration into life at Mt. Olive. This course is geared to those who are coming from other church backgrounds (or no backgrounds at all) and would like to learn more about what Lutherans believe. The course is required for new members, although there will be no pressure to join Mt. Olive when you complete the course. Those Lutherans who are interested in transferring their membership to Mt. Olive from another Lutheran congregation are encouraged to attend MOSAIC, especially the final session which will provide an overview of and introduction to the ministries of Mt. Olive.

Classes will be held on Sundays, July 13th, 20th, 27th and August 3rd from 11:45 am until 1:15 pm in the multipurpose room. Childcare will be available for those who need it.

If you would like more information, feel free to contact Pastor Jeff at pastor@mtolivec.org or 422-9991.
